WHAT SHOULD I EXPECT DURING THE INTERVIEW?

Interviewing with Quantum is a conversational process. We want to get to know you as a person, as well as a clinician, to ensure we are a good match. We are here to answer your questions and help get you plugged into a placement you are excited about.

WHAT SHOULD I EXPECT AFTER THE INTERVIEW?

First, we reach out to references and ask about your strengths as well as how to support growth opportunities as a new clinician. Next, if we feel you are a match for Quantum, you will receive an offer letter. Finally, we will discuss placement options that fit your preferences (e.g., setting, location, etc).

Also, we do not require you to sign a non-compete clause. We are here to support what works for you.
